Farmingville, NY – Supervisor Ed Romaine announced today that the Brookhaven Youth Bureau INTERFACE Program's annual Thanksgiving Food Drive for local families will run from October 19 through November 20. The Youth Bureau INTERFACE Program is a partnership between good neighbors and the Town of Brookhaven, united in a common effort to provide help to Brookhaven's less fortunate residents all year round. Drop off points for the food drive are:

- Brookhaven Town Hall, One Independence Hill in Farmingville
- Henrietta Acampora Recreation Center, 39 Montauk Highway in Blue Point
- Brookhaven Town Highway Department, 1140 Old Town Road in Coram
- Rose Caracappa Senior Center, 739 Route 25A in Mount Sinai

Suggested food items for donations include all non-perishables including, but not limited to, canned soups, canned cranberry sauce, turkey gravy, stuffing mix, instant potatoes, canned sweet or white potatoes, rice, canned vegetables, jar or canned sauce, macaroni, canned fruit, puddings, jello, cookie mix, cake mix and icing and juice. Due to refrigeration requirements, the Town cannot accept frozen turkeys; however, residents can donate $10.00 Gift Certificates to local supermarkets, enabling a family to purchase a turkey.

Hours of operation for the Town of Brookhaven's Youth Bureau INTERFACE Program's Thanksgiving Food Drive are from 9:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. For more information contact Josie Lunde at the Town of Brookhaven Youth Bureau at 631-451-8011.
